PROJECTS

Composerdle | React.js, Node.js, Express.js, PostgreSQL, Tailwind CSS

- Utilized the PERN stack to create a full-stack web application that challenges users to guess the composer of the day based on categorical hints.
- Developed an express server and API to track user statistics, calculate daily averages, and maintain global totals for daily guesses, ensuring real-time data updates.
- Developed a user authentication system using JWT (JSON Web Tokens) for secure sign-ins, allowing users to track their personal progress between sessions

Lingify | React JS, Tailwind CSS, DaisyUI

- Developed a dynamic language learning website that provides users with over 100 phrases in multiple target languages to test their translation skills.
- Implemented functionality for users to select their preferred difficulty level (beginner, intermediate, advanced), adjusting the phrases displayed based on their level.

PokéStudy | HTML, CSS, JavaScript, PokéAPI

- Developed a Study Timer that uses PokeAPI to gamify studying by allowing users to collect Pokémon based on study session completion.
- Implemented Pokémon Collection Feature that tracks and stores user progress in a multi-paged grid.
- Enhanced User Experience by designing a responsive and visually appealing app, accounting for different screen sizes.
